ABOUT THIS COLOUR

Singing The Blues is a sophisticated mid tone reminiscent of deep twilight or a calm ocean horizon. It possesses a subtle steel gray base softened by hints of cerulean blue, creating an atmosphere that is both restful and evocative. This hue manages to be grounding yet air light, suggesting clarity without being cold. It works beautifully in spaces needing depth but also natural illumination.

This shade invokes feelings of tranquility, nostalgic calm, and introspective peace. It suggests a moment of quiet reflection, like sitting by the water as dusk approaches. It is comforting and mature, adding an air of...
