ABOUT THIS COLOUR

Burned Leaf is a muted, sophisticated shade of dusty rose with deep terracotta undertones. It recalls the gentle decay of autumn foliage mixed with the warmth of ancient brick. This subtle yet commanding hue offers depth without demanding attention, providing a comforting backdrop for various furnishings and artwork.

The colour evokes feelings of cozy intimacy, nostalgic comfort, and earthy resilience. It feels grounded, sophisticated, and warmly enveloping, suggesting quiet mornings by a fireplace or the rich harvest colours...
