ABOUT THIS COLOUR

Prairie Fire is a warm earth tone, reminiscent of late autumn light filtering through dried grasses and ripe wheat fields. It blends the deep warmth of terracotta with the gentle subtlety of dusty taupe, giving it an organic richness. It speaks of sunbaked clay and embers cooling to soft amber.

This colour invokes feelings of cozy nostalgia, grounded comfort, and timeless tranquility. It is deeply soothing yet warm, creating a sense of being settled, protected, and at peace, like coming home on a crisp...
